CAPITAL ANALYZING.

GOLD SHIFT TITLE

Washington, Jan. 15. (AP)—Government ownership of all monetary gold today was analyzed to mean chiefly a shift in title, since most of the syllow metal already is in either the treasury itself or its mints.

Known monetary gold stocks exceed $4,000,000,000 of this, $3,201-740,000 is held in the treasury. Of what's outside, $310,154,000 is held by the Federal Reserve banks.

The change of title might be accomplished simply by earmarking that $310,000,000 of coin and bullion to the Government's account. Or it could be shipped into the treasury.

Of the gold held in the treasury,
$1,707,949,000 belongs to the reserve banks. This, plus what they have themselves, plus $948,133,000 in gold certificates—paper demand notes in that much gold in the treasury—gives the 12 banks title to $3,500,000,000 in gold. This ownership is divided among the districts as follows:

New York, $959,575,000; Chicago,
$648,342,000; Cleveland, $287,432-000; Boston, $256,378,000; San Francisco, $252,946,000; Philadelphia, $200,741,000; Richmond, $103,205-
000; St. Louis, $102,083,000; Kansas City, $152,704,000; Atlanta, $113,672-000; Minneapolis, $93,002,000; Dallas, $77,558,000.

PATRONAGE CAUCUS

SET FOR TONIGHT

Some Democrats Seized With Shivers of Apprehension
Today.

FARLEY SPEECH RESULT

Washington, Jan. 15. (AP)—As they prepared to face a night in a forced caucus on patronage tonight, more than a handful of House Democrats today were divided between signs of relief and shivers of apprehension over what some described a veiled administration threat.

Exactly 44 Democratic Representatives voted against President Roosevelt's Federal payroll plan last week,
despite direct statements by House leaders that its passage was his wish.

GOLD PRICE LEVEL

STAYS AT SAME POINT

Washington, Jan. 15. (AP)—The Government again today offered $34.06 an ounce for domestic gold, giving new indication that devalu-tion of the dollar will approximate
the sixty-cent level.

The figure for newly-mined metal was repeated for the 11st time as President Roosevelt polished a special message to Congress seeking broader authority to revalue the gold dollar
after the Government has impounded
the Federal Reserve Bank gold stock of $3,500,000,000.

The offer of $34.06 indicated a gold dollar of 14.35 grains, as compared with the present legal figure of 23.22
grains which gives the legal mint
price of $20.07.

Today's RFC quotation was made an sterling opened in London at $5.10 1/2 to the pound, showing a weakness of more than one cent on monetary news from the United States.
At this level, bar gold was worth $32.80.

Gold Purchases.

Washington, Jan. 15. (AP)—The RFC has purchased approximately $97,000,000 of foreign gold. It became known today, including $19,000,000
bought since January 1st.

PHONES, EARNINGS

SHOW FALLING OFF GIFFORD REPORTED

New York, Jan. 15. (AP)—Walter
S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. in a statement to stockholders today reported a net loss of $30,000 telephones for the Bell System during 1933. There was a net loss of 1,020,000 in 1932.

During the first eight months of 1933 the system had a net loss of 715,000 telephones, but during the final four months gained $5,000.

The number of telephones is serving, January 1st, he said was about $1,100,000, which is 10 per cent below the maximum development reached in 1930.

Preliminary figures including Western Electric Co. indicate "earnings on American Telephone & Telegraph Co.
stock were approximately $5.20 per share compared with $5.00 for share in 1932," Gifford told stockholders.

John J. McNaboe Announced
Intention to Give New Yorker a Fair Chance.

BALANCE OF POWER

Expected to Affect Assembly Procedure to Some Extent.

New York, Jan. 15. (AP)—Senator
John J. McNaboe today announced his intention of bolting the Democratic leadership in the state Senate.
His action breaks the one vote majority held by his party in the upper house of the state Legislature.

Principal Effect.

The principal effect of Senator Mc-Naboe's bolt is expected to be felt in the legislative program of Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia whom he feels should be "given a chance."

The Democratic majority, hanging
by a 28 to 25 vote, the Manhattan
Senator will be the balance of power not only in the Senate, but largely in the Legislature through his power to call bills out of committee on votes which follow strict party alignment.

THEATER ARCHITECT DEAD ON THE COAST

WORKED IN BATAVIA

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 15. (AP)— Leon Henry Lempert, 66, widely known theater architect, is dead here.

Mr. Lempert was formerly of Rochester, where he was recognized as being a leading theater architect of the United States. He drew the plans for the remodeling of the New Family Theater in Batavia 12 years ago and also made plans for remodeling of the Dellinger Theater, but they were never used. Mr. Lempert also drew preliminary plans and sketches of the proposed Community Theater, planned to be erected on the Holden site
west of the Masonic Temple.

BABE RUTH SIGNED CONTRACT FOR 1934.

SALARY TO BE $35,000

New York, Jan. 15. (AP)—Babe
Ruth signed a contract today to play with the New York Yankees for another year at $35,000, the lowest salary since 1921, when he received $30-000.

High up in the old red brewery on Third avenue, with Colonel Jacob Ruppert a witness, the Babe put his signature to the contract, the terms of which he and the colonel had agreed on last Friday.

"I asked the Babe if he would sign for $35,000," the colonel said. "He assured me he thought that he ought to have $25,000 and I agreed.
That was all the dickering there was
to it."

Heart Attack Held Responsible
For Unexpected Demise.

Arade, Jan. 15.—Lynn S. Bentley, 44, Wyoming County district attorney and law partner of Federal Judge John Knight, was found dead in bed by members of his family this morning. Death had occurred during the night of a heart attack.

District Attorney Bentley had been suffering with a cold for several days,
but he had been in his office daily
and had planned to go down to business early today to attend to several county cases. He had not complained of illness when he retired last night.

Lifelong Resident.

Mr. Bentley was a life-long resident of the community and a son of Mr.
and Mrs. Morris Bentley. He attended grade school and high school here and graduated from a University of Buffalo law college with the class of 1911. He had practiced to this community since then, having established partnership with Judge Knight
a few years after his graduation.

Elected district attorney in 1926,
Mr. Bentley had continuously served in that office since then. He was re-elected in 1930 and again last fall.
He had gained a wide reputation as a crushing official and recognition for his fearless and unrelenting campaign against prohibition violators.

Surviving Mr. Bentley are his father, a resident of Arade; his wife, Mrs. Healy Bentley, and a son, Robert, 15 years of age. He was a member of the Warsaw Lodge, F. & A. M., the Buffalo Consistory and the Shrine. Funeral services are to be held Thursday, but arrangements had not been completed today.

In return for their contracts with the Government to cut their wheat acreage 15 per cent below the average for the past three years, 38 farmers in Seneca County will receive checks tomorrow, amounting to $2-348.

In other counties of the state, 390
farmers have received checks amounting to $11,000. This is part of the $10,000,000 the administration expects to disburse this winter to farmers in 35 states participating in the acreage reduction campaign.

Above normal weather continued
today with strong prospect of gold weather, or storms for three or four days. Probable local snows are forecast for tonight and tomorrow, with somewhat warmer weather in the last portion tonight and slightly colder in the first portion Tuesday.

Since Saturday morning, the temperatures dropped steadily from 35° —36° at 8 o'clock this morning, but went back to 31° early this afternoon.
Mild weather for several days is expected because weather maps fail to show a storm of any importance in any part of the country.

Theater Architect Dies in Pasadena

Leon H. Lempert Designed Rochester Playhouses

Death of Leon Henry Lempert, 64, was reported yesterday from Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. Lempert, formerly of Rochester, was the architect of a number of large theaters. He had been in California for a year attempting to regain his health. Mr. Lempert and his father, the late Leon H. Lempert, designed and patented a type of theater construction now widely used. Its distinguishing characteristic is the "bowed auditorium."

The elder Lempert was the architect for the Lyceum Theater here. The son drew plans and supervised the construction of the Temple and Regent theaters and the Victoria Theater in Clinton Avenue South, which was razed about two years ago.

Mr. Lempert is survived by his widow and four sisters, Mrs. Gilbert F. Barber and Mrs. Charles A. Rauber of this city, and Mrs. J. H. McCort and Mrs. Reginald L. Fernald of New York City. The body will be sent here in March for burial in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

Mr. Lempert, who was 66 years of age, and Mrs. Lempert came to this city more than a year ago from Rochester, N. Y., where their home was one of the eastern city's show places.

The son's hobby was poetry and he won considerable literary recognition by publishing many books of verses. His library of 3000 rare volumes is asserted to be among Rochester's finest private libraries.

Besides his widow, he leaves four sisters, Mrs. J. M. McCort of Sag Harbor, N. Y.; Mrs. Reginald Fernald, Flushing, N. Y.; Mrs. Gilbert Barber and Mrs. Charles Rauber, both of Rochester.

Private funeral services will be announced by Ives & Warren Co. and at a later date Mrs. Lempert will accompany the body and where interment will be conducted.

"Yard Arm" Dick von Lienen, has seas for thirty years his nickname because he measured a yard of his nose to the finger.

Leaving Germany in 1894, he shipped as a stowaway for a month, to Alaska, and was promoted to first mate. In 1898 he joined the Yukon expedition of W. H. Murray and made his way to the Yukon. For the last five years he has traversed the coast of Alaska, alone in his boat, engaged in fishing.

as managing editor and publisher. He made a success of the Rochester paper at a time when the Confederacy was still militant and the local Democratic party was glad to take it over when Mr. Lee decided to return to his home state.

In 1879 he formed a co-partnership with Samuel H. Lowe and Frank T. Skinner for the purpose of publishing the Rochester Morning Herald. The paper started with a capital of $5,000. After a number of years with the Herald, Mr. Lee retired from the newspaper publishing business and entered the investment field. He increased his holdings and his estate grew until it reached the considerable figure disposed of in his will.

It is reported the Metropolitan Museum of Art will deal fairly by the family, who were cut off with the relatively small sums bequeathed to them as above. A contest of the will was threatened. The negotiations which led to the withdrawal of objections to the probate, were conducted by Judge Nelson E. Spencer as special guardian for Samuel W. Lee and Bly & Bly, representing the executor.

classmate at Princeton of Woodrow Wilson and close personal friend of the late president, died today at his home, 261 Culver Road.

Mr. Lee was born in Waterford, N. Y., Feb. 27, 1856, the son of the Rev. Lewis H. and Pauline Brewster Lee. His early education was received in the public schools of Rochester. He entered the University of Rochester in the class of 1877 and later entered Princeton University, graduating in the class of 1879.

Studied Law

He studied law in the offices of Judge Addison Gardner and Oscar Craig, succeeding Mr. Craig as attorney of the Monroe County Savings Bank. He was a member of the Country Club and one of its organizers; the Genesee Valley Club, the Rochester and American Bar Associations, the May Flower Society and the University Club of New York. He was for many years a trustee of the First Presbyterian Church.

He was active in athletics early in life, and was tennis champion of Rochester for two years. He was one of the organizers of the Rochester Tennis Club and was for several years president of the Rochester Athletic Club. He was instrumental in securing the erection of the boat house in Genesee Valley Park.

Funeral Thursday

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home. The Rev. John J. Lawrence, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Mr. Lee is survived by his widow, Alice Ives; two sons, William B. Jr., of Rochester and Robert Church Lee of Cleveland, and one daughter, Mrs. Aims C. Coney of Cleveland.

GEORGE V. LENNON, treasurer of the Stromberg-Carlson Manufacturing Company, is 47 years old today.

After his graduation from St. Bridget's School and Rochester Free Academy, Mr. Lennon worked for the W. S. Kimball Company, a branch of the American Tobacco Company. He then entered the employ of the Stromberg-Carlson Telephone Manufacturing Company at the building at University Avenue and Culver Road had been completed to house the business moved here from Chicago. Mr. Lennon lives at 50 Lake Front Street.

C. C. Laney to End 40 Years in Park Department To-day

D.C. Feb 29 '30

Retirement Forced by State Law Fixing Age Limit

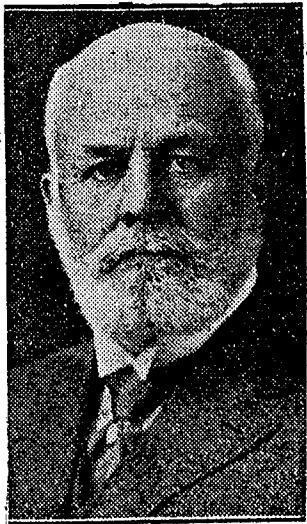

R. U. E. - Rochester Bldg

Because he has reached the maximum age limit permissible under the state retirement law, Calvin C. Laney, director of parks, will to-day conclude his service as a paid employee of the city. Mr. Laney has been closely identified with the development of Rochester's park system, and is looked on as an outstanding authority on park matters. He was 78 years old on February 18th, and his retirement is compulsory under the state law. Regret that he could not be retained was expressed yesterday afternoon by City Manager Stephen B. Story and George J. Nier, commissioner of public safety, in whose department the parks are included.

Tribute to Mr. Laney's ability and his long service in the interest of the city was paid by Mr. Story and Mr. Nier, and it is understood that Mr. Laney's advice and counsel on park matters will be sought in an advisory capacity, much the same as are the services of Edwin A. Fisher, former consulting city engineer, who also retired last year because of the age limit. The state retirement law prohibits the payment of any salary to Mr. Laney as a regular employee of the city, and notice that Mr. Laney would have to be eliminated from the payroll to-morrow has been received from the state authorities by Comptroller Clarence E. Higgins.

Regrettable, Says Story

"It was regrettable that we are compelled to eliminate Mr. Laney from the payroll," said Mr. Story yesterday afternoon. "Both Commissioner Nier and myself would like to retain him as long as he desired to serve." Mr. Nier expressed regret that Mr. Laney was compelled to retire and said, "He is in excellent physical condition, despite his age, and capable in every way to handle the responsibilities of his office, but the provisions of the retirement act are absolute, and we have no alternative in this unfortunate situation. I am sure Mr. Laney relinquishes his position as a regular employee of the city with the best wishes and gratitude of every public spirited citizen. His has been an accomplished service to the community, and his efforts have been closely interwoven with the development of Rochester's park system, and he can not help but know that the city regards his life's work as exceedingly well done."

CALVIN C. LANEY

Mr. Nier said that no thought has been given to the selection of Mr. Laney's successor. It will be a number of days before Mr. Laney concludes his affairs, and the general supervision of the office routine will be in charge of Miss Gertrude Hartnett, who was deputy commissioner of parks, under the old Charter, and is now secretary to Commissioner Nier, but assigned to the park office.

Provisions of Law

When the city joined the New York state retirement system, the maximum age limit for service by city employees was 70 years, but there was a provision that employees certified to be in good health and physically able to perform the duties of their office could serve for two years periods, up to the maximum age of 80 years. The law was amended in 1926, to provide to be reduced one year for each decade that the maximum age of 80, successive year up to 1935, when every employee would be compelled to retire at 70 years, and could not be continued under any circumstances. Under this amendment the maximum retirement age this year is 78 years, and the law requires the retirement of the employee on the first day of the calendar month after the one in which he reaches his 78th birthday. This compels Mr. Laney to relinquish his employment after to-day.

The retirement of Mr. Laney marks the passing of the last of those who had a major part in the development of the Rochester park system. He came into the system at its birth in 1888 as a surveyor, and for forty years he has given unswerving loyalty and devotion to it. Soon after the organization of intendent and engineer. He remained in the position of superintendent until two years when he was promoted to be commissioner of parks. His title was changed on January 1st last, when the department of Parks ceased to exist as such, and the title was changed to Bureau of Parks, and he was named director.

LEON LEMPERT, ARCHITECT, DIES ON COAST

1-15-30
Leon Henry Lempert, sixty-six, formerly of this city and an architect for many large American theaters, was dead today in Pasadena, Cal.

Mr. Lempert left Rochester about a year ago and went to California for his health. With his father, the late Leon H. Lempert, he originated and patented the "bowed auditorium" type theater after which nearly all modern theaters are constructed.

Following in the footsteps of his father, who he said had inspired him with the "love of designing beautiful playhouses," Mr. Lempert designed and supervised the building of the Temple and Regent Theaters here. He also designed the former Victoria Theater in Clinton Avenue South, razed about two years ago. His father was the architect for the Lyceum Theater here.

Because of his ability as a theater architect, Mr. Lempert was retained by Shea's theater chain to design their theaters. Shea's Buffalo Theater in Main Street, Buffalo, and Shea's Toronto in Toronto, Ontario, were two of the theaters erected by Mr. Lempert.

He also designed and supervised the erection of the old Gordon Theater here in Clinton Avenue North, on the site of the present RKO Palace. Mr. Lempert had offices in the Cutler Building.

Becoming ill about three years ago, Mr. Lempert left for California. He was a communicant of Our Lady of Victory Church, where he designed one of the shrines.

Besides his widow, he leaves four sisters, Mrs. Gilbert F. Barber and Mrs. Charles S. Rauber of this city, and Mrs. J. H. McCort and Mrs. Reginald L. Fernald of New York City. The body will be brought to this city in March for burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

LEMPERT, BUILDER OF THEATERS, DIES

Leon H. Lempert, theatrical architect, formerly of Rochester, died yesterday at Pasadena, Calif., aged 66 years.

A sister of Mr. Lempert, Mrs. J. H. McCort of Sag Harbor will arrive in Rochester tomorrow with the body of her husband, Dr. McCort who died Sunday at his home in Sag Harbor.

Mr. Lempert had been in California a year to regain his health. With his father, the late Leon H. Lempert, Mr. Lempert originated and patented the "bowled auditorium" type theater after which most modern show buildings are patterned.

His father was the architect for the Lyceum Theater in Rochester. The son drew plans and supervised the construction of the Temple and Regent theaters and the Victoria Theater in Clinton Avenue South, which was razed about two years ago.

Mr. Lempert is survived by his widow and four sisters, Mrs. Gilbert F. Barber and Mrs. Charles S. Rauber of Rochester and Mrs. McCort of Sag Harbor and Mrs. Reginald L. Fernald of New York.

The body will be brought to Rochester in March for burial in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

John Leicht Dies at 96; Pioneer Resident Worked For Same Firm 73 Years

John Leicht, 96, pioneer resident of Rochester, who had the unique distinction of working for the same concern 73 years, died this morning, Sept. 25, 1934, at his home, 86 Bay Street, after a brief illness.

He was born in Germany June 24, 1838, and was brought to this country and Rochester by his parents four years later.

The father first settled in Brighton and the son attended old St. Joseph's School, then in Ely Street. Later the father moved into present Bay Street. He hewed the logs to build the cabin to shelter his family.

There were three cabins only in that entire district then, but the son lived to see it develop into one of the city's congested districts, although to his death he retained title to one of the largest plots of land in that section, including an orchard, for which he cared with loving hand.

In his youth he obtained work at the Likly Trunk Company's plant in Lyell Avenue and remained in that firm's employ for 73 years.

He was an enthusiastic pedestrian. Hardly a day passed until his final illness without his walking from three to five miles. For years he walked to and from his work for the exercise.

When he retired, only a few years ago, it afforded him a long-sought opportunity to give more attention to his orchards, his plants and his daily walk.

Mr. Leicht's survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Mary Kuhn, Mrs. Catherine Diring, Mrs. Joseph Tschiderer and Miss Angelina Leicht; four sons, George J., Joseph, Henry and John J. Leicht; 33 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren, all of Rochester.

The funeral will be held Friday morning from his home, with services at St. Francis Xavier Church, at a time to be determined later.
